

EPIC Trust
Empowering People through Independence and Choice

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

MARKETING VOLUNTEER

Service: Alone in London – Schools Work Project

Summary: This project involves preventative work around homelessness; educating young people in schools about the factors that can lead to homelessness and to promote good communication skills. A DVD resource has recently been created for use in secondary schools

Location: This opportunity is based in Islington (N1) but will involve travel around London

Some of the tasks this volunteer will have the opportunity to do:

- Gain an insight into the work of Alone in London and the wider housing and homelessness sector
- Promote a DVD resource focused on preventing homelessness to educational authorities and other organisations across London
- Develop and maintain positive, supportive relationships with schools and other stakeholders participating in this project
- Support schools to deliver promotional and fundraising activities for Alone in London
- Develop and maintain systems of monitoring, feedback and reporting in relation to this work
- Other research and development work as directed

We are looking for someone who:

- Has proven marketing experience and influencing skills
- Understands, and is sensitive to, the needs of vulnerable young people;
- Has initiative, organisation skills and the ability to prioritise tasks to meet deadlines;
- Can communicate clearly and honestly; and confidently present information to diverse audiences
- Works in an anti-discriminatory manner within EPIC Trust's key policies.

Hours & Expenses

At least 12 hours per week across 2 or 3 days between Monday and Friday. Ideally one of these days will be a Tuesday or a Thursday. We offer training, support & supervision. We will pay for travel expenses to and from the workplace, and a contribution towards lunch expenses, as long as tickets and receipts are provided.