

Performance Reporting

Explanation of graphics in reports

Below is an explanation for each of the symbols used in Old Ford's SOAP and Key Performance Indicator summary reports.

Performance is on or above target

Performance is within tolerance (acceptable)

Performance is below tolerance

Performance has improved since the last report

There has not been any change since the last report

Performance has dropped since the last report